Note: 1. Results based on low response rates may not reflect the true class mean. Dept mean is for all undergraduate, or all graduate courses, offered by dept and is weighted by class size.
2. Results from cross-listed courses are included in the mean for the department whose course prefix appears first in the alphabet (e.g., for a course listed as HI and REL, the results are included in History's mean). To find the department mean for the other department (in this example, Philosophy and Religion), go to http://www2.acs.ncsu.edu/UPA/classeval/faculty/college_univ_means.htm .

Some student comments:

Paul is a great instructor. I appreciated his willingness to meet with students and to help trouble-shoot problems that I encountered with the final assignment. He is also very responsive and approachable, which I really appreciated this semester.

I appreciated the way that Paul facilitated dialogue, while making sure that class time was used effectively. I also liked his conversational style of teaching and intentionality in providing valuable content when he did lecture. I never felt as though class time was wasted.

Dr. Umbach is a wonderful instructor who goes out of his way to ensure that his students understand the material. He is receptive to differing viewpoints and encourages examination of the status quo. I really enjoyed having him as an instructor!

Paul was an excellent instructor. I only wish I had taken a class under him earlier in my graduate work. He was prepared for class, passionate about the topic, easily accessible after class and truly cared for his students. I cannot say enough good things about him!
